"Looking for Alaska" by John Green

"Looking for Alaska", written by John Green, is a story that will leave the reader moved by the characters. The readers will 30 _____ things about themselves they may have never known.

The author graduated from Kenyon College and worked for the "Booklist" journal. He reviewed hundreds of books, particularly literary fiction. In 31 _____, he critiqued novels for "The New York Times" Book Review. His first novel "Looking for Alaska" was mostly 32 _____ by his experience at a boarding school. This book made the "Top 10 Best Book for Young Adults" and undoubtedly 33 _____ it.

The novel is flawlessly written, moving and stimulating. All the characters are real and can create connections with their audience. They no longer seem to behave like fictional characters, but rather real people that have similar problems and ideas as young adults nowadays. 34 _____ of this, readers are able to recognize their own search for self-identity or labyrinths they must escape through the main characters.

Overall, I would recommend this novel to kids in high school. The characters in this story showed me the good and bad parts of life and still 35 _____ me want to live through them. This novel generated a spectrum of emotions with each page and I could 36 _____ put it down.

"Faithful" by Jane Bush

"Faithful" is the final novel in the trilogy by Jane Bush. This powerful book pushes limits, breaks hearts and 30 _____ you think. It is much more complex than most young adult novels in its challenges of what is logical versus what is right. The novel 31 _____ a breathtaking story about the adventures of Tobias and Tris.

Tobias reveals vulnerabilities I never would have guessed he had. I loved the half of the novel, which was told from his point of 32 _____; the darkness and desperation he fights against were so intense it hurt my heart.

Tris' side is less complicated and she doesn't change much. However, she gains a deeper understanding of things, which in turn gives the reader 33 _____ a deeper understanding of the characters and their motivations.

While I loved so many things in this book, the writing wasn't as exciting as in the previous novels, at 34 _____ not for me and not in the beginning. Towards the middle it gained more intensity and the pace picked up, and by the end I was on the edge of my seat.

The end was perfect not just on the characters' parts, but on the author's as well. It was an ending that left me 35 _____ earlier scenes with revelation that it was all leading to this. Jane Bush has definitely 36 _____ in creating an unforgettable world to discover.

"The Polar Express"

"The Polar Express" is a fantastic book by Chris Van Allsburg. The author has 30 _____ a terrific job at both writing and illustrating this book. He portrays the boy's enthusiasm at going to the North Pole: this journey is 31 _____ a trip to an amusement park. Chris Van Allsburg's writing is full of magic and wonder; the first person narration is realistic and heart-warming 32 _____ the same time. The boy 33 _____ the readers what a wonderful place the North Pole is, he describes in every detail the city's lights and the factories that surround the city. The 34 _____ that the text is set up will make any child want to go to the North Pole. Van Allsburg's illustrations are colourful and appealing, especially of the images of the North Pole with the beautiful picture of all the fairy tale characters gathering at the centre of the city. Also, the different landscapes that the Polar Express passes through are extremely beautiful.

"The Polar Express" is truly one of the greatest masterpieces in children's literature ever created. The readers will share the experience of 35 _____ at the North Pole from a child's perspective. They will also 36 _____ the wonderful illustrations of the North Pole itself. I would recommend this book to boys and girls aged five and up since there is nothing really inappropriate for small children.
